NOTORIOUS RETURNS FOR FAULTLINE FROLIC 2006

Eden MacAdam-Somer and Larry Unger so dazzled us last June that we invited them back to play our weekend this year. Put it on your calendar: June 16-18 at Monroe Hall in Santa Rosa with Notorious and Erik Weberg, one of the finest West Coast callers. (But he notes apologetically that he doesn't call squares.)

This year we're at Monroe the whole time, and we're again asking local dancers to host out-of-towners. Besides that, we're scheduling some uniquely North Bay activities outside the dance hall to celebrate this wonderful place where we live and dance. Dragonfly hike, anyone?

HATS OFF TO LYNN AND NICK

For the past 3 years, Lynn Ackerson has programmed the first Friday Sonoma dance, using her nation-wide connections and dance gypsy proclivities to bring exciting talent to the longest-running NBCDS dance. Lynn, a resident of El Cerrito, was pulled over in the early morning by the CHP for weaving on her way home from a Sonoma dance this fall. She realized the meter was up, and she'd better not risk falling asleep at the wheel after long days at work followed by long hours on the road to get to and from a dance far from home. Lynn not only programmed the dance, she subsidized it by not taking pay for calling and adding money for musicians out of her own pocket. She provided taxi service for the East Bay sound tech too. She hands over the programming of the Sonoma dance to Rebecca King as of 2006.

Nick Cuccia also leaves his post as the usual sound tech for the Sonoma dance after the December contra. Next to dance manager Beth Hadley, the sound tech is the first to get to the hall and the last to leave. The pay is a joke, and the shleppage is tedious at best, but the sound tech is crucial to dance success.

North Bay dancers send their gratitude to Lynn and Nick for their service to the North Bay community, and wish them joyful dancing closer to home along with frequent returns to NBCDS dances.

MARCH 25 SEBASTOPOL DANCE & WORKSHOPS

In March, the Sebastopol dance is having an afternoon of workshops to precede the regular dance. Erik Hoffman will be teaching a Caller's workshop fol-lowed by a Hambo workshop, that turn ing Swedish dance done before the second half of many contras. All will be held at Wischemann Hall. The hall has a kitchen with a microwave, refrigerator & oven to store & heat up your potluck dinner contributions.

2:30-4:30	Caller workshop (cost $5-15
	sliding scale (dancers free))
4:30-6	Hambo workshop (cost $5)
6-7:30	Potluck Dinner featuring you!
7:30	Contra lesson
8-11	Dance (regular price)

SEBASTOPOL DANCE NEEDS YOU

The Sebastopol contra dance needs a new infusion of energy! We currently need a co-dance-manager and someone to do publicity. For four years, the dance has had good-to-marginal attendance. Some dances don't reach critical mass for a good dance experience, & we can't pay talent as much as we'd like and they deserve. Publicity in local papers built up attendance in Santa Rosa. By drawing in new dancers from West County. we could spread the joy of contra dancing and improve the Sebastopol dance.

For its four-year lifespan, the Sebastopol dance has been run by a very few volunteers. To continue, we need more people to contribute energy to the dance. Those who currently run the dance every month are considering closing down the dance in spring of 2006. Please volunteer! Contact Elizabeth Douglas at 707.829.6666 or elizd@nbcds.org.

Contra dancing and English Country Dancing are easy, fun, friendly and inclusive. All dances are taught and prompted, and feature great live music. No experience is necessary; come alone or bring a friend. Wear comfortable clothes and low, smooth-soled, comfortable shoes. Scent-free dancing appreciated! New dancers are encouraged to come early for an orientation, and for simpler dances early in the evening. Parents Please Note: All Non-Dancing Children Must Be Supervised. NBCDS is a non-profit, all-volunteer organization, an affiliate of the Country Dance and Song Society, which was founded in 1915 to promote, preserve, study, teach and enjoy American and English folk and traditional dance, music and song: www.cdss.org.
